

Dear Cousin Richard,

Enclosed are summaries of two documents from Montedoro Sicily.

The first is the marriage certificate of Grandma Cologera (Charlene) and Grandpa Angelo Curto.

Atti Di Matrimonio

The Second is an official document of the birth of my father Joseph Curto.

Atti Di Nascita

I had a hard time reading some of the words in each of these documents, that is why they are summaries.

Also included is a map of the town of Montedoro, Sicily. I marked the area where their house was located.

I also included some pictures.

A large photo of Grandpa and Grandma Curto with your Dad Nicholas, who is standing and the little boy in front is, Uncle Sam Curto.

Six smaller photos:

1. The front door of Grandma and Grandpa Curto's home in Montedoro
#3 Via Vittorio Emanuele- Victor Emanuel
2. Dave and our friend Diego checking the map on Victor Emanuel Street
3. Grandma and Grandpa Curto's Church
4. The inside altar area
5. The ceiling above the altar
6. The Town Square

I hope enjoy these documents.

I'm sure that the birth certificates of your Dad and Uncle Louie are also still there. They would look pretty much the same as my father's. Uncle Sam was born in the United States.

Let me know that you have received them. Have fun reading these documents that are a part of our heritage.

*P.S. You can visit Montedoro, Sicily through the internet.
Type in montedoro, sicily / you tube
You will get lots of websites. Click on Un Giro Virtuale, Montedoro (4:44 mins.)
When you reach 2:10 minutes (pause frequently to get there) you will see Grandpa & Grandma home, where your Dad lived. Their house is on the right just past the trees and white car. It's on the right hand side of the street!!*

Enclosed are document copies, summaries and pictures. I typed everything, so they would be easier to read. Enjoy all. I'm not sure of the name of their church. It's the Church of the Blessed Mother Mary. Something like that I think, when I find the name I'll email it to you.

Sorry it took so long. Translating, took me a while! Ha! Ha!
